

Millionaire Business School's life-changing event returns

The Financial Education Convention 2018 is ready to gather financial experts under one roof to provide participants with valuable insights in financing

By Tara Yean

tarayean@malaysiasme.com.my

For those seeking to (finally) achieve financial freedom that you've always dreamed of, now is your chance! Brace yourself for the coming Financial Education Convention 2018, where individuals will be able to learn how to improve their financial status through various business and investment opportunities. The event that will be held on 30 June 2018 at PORTMAN College, Mines 2, will not only act as a networking platform for financial investors, it can also allow the attendees to learn about current economic trends, develop funding strategies and further enhance their knowledge regarding financial education.

Organised by the Millionaire Business School, this event will gather financial educators, banking and investment executives, financial service providers, government officials as well as its staff members, along with financial aid officers and a variety of other financial experts who are committed to share their knowledge on financial education.

The Millionaire Business School

is exclusive to registered students of Portman College, the business education specialist, and is known for being the only Business School in Malaysia that teaches students on financial education. This includes a range of areas such as Business Investment, Business Management, Paper Assets Investment, Real Estate Investment and Commodities Investment. Being on a mission to create millionaires through business and investments, the Business School also organises regular seminars, talks, round table discussions and conferences that features entrepreneurs, financials and business experts from various industries.

During the Financial Education Convention 2018, visitors will have the chance to hear from a number of well-known speakers in the financial industry, including Ernie Chen, Asia's No. 1 Business Coach, Serial Entrepreneur, TV and radio personality; Adrian Un, CEO of SkyBridge International; Daniele Gambero, CEO of REI Group of Companies; Charles Gregory, CEO in Digital Marketing Consultancy; Alan Poon, CEO of Superior Wealth Group; Johnny Tan, Senior Agency Manager at Prudential; Chris Tan, Managing Partner of Chur Associates®; Low Chern Hong, a known speaker, trainer and Operation Manager of 8VIC Malaysia; Marcus Teoh, bestselling author and Chief Inspiration Officer or Beonco.com and Gym Chan, Gen-Y Property and Investor Advisor of Millionaire Business Club.

This largest financial education event in Malaysia is scheduled to begin from 9am to 4:30pm, starting with a welcoming speech from President of the Millionaire Business School, Lucas Fong, will kick-off the one day event with his welcoming speech followed by a presentation from Alan Poon regarding financials and real estate. Soon after, participants will be able to witness the official launch of the "10 Ultimate Marketing Strategies" that will be officiated by Ernie Chen, before he leads a VIP Session in the afternoon.

The final two sessions will be delivered by Adrian Un and Charles Gregory, who will each be speaking about 'Making a Difference Through Property' and 'How to Earn Money from Affiliate Marketing' respectively.

Apart from all these interesting topics, the event will also offer sponsorship and exhibiting packages that are designed to provide a solid platform to help you stand out more and make a significant impact with targeted sponsorship experiences for the advancement of your business. The Millionaire Business School has even developed convenient customisation packages to help your organisations meet its objectives and reach your target market.

Last year's edition of the Financial Education Convention saw the effective delivery of financial education, consumer financial products and services by hosting a national event for professionals who provided these services. It served as a showcase for financial education success stories, offering participants proven strategies, tips and techniques to achieve financial freedom through financial education and funding for startup businesses.

The Financial Education Convention 2017 provided an opportunity to broaden the participants' competitive edge by improving their company's image, prestige and credibility with financial educators from across the country. Additionally, it also allowed the companies to differentiate themselves from competitors while showcasing their own unique product and services to develop stronger relationships with the financial educators who were present during the event.

Apart from the convention, the Millionaire Business School also organised various other programmes that supported this initiative such as the 'How to Become a Trainer and Speaker Training Programme on 5 August 2017 at the ATCEN Learning Centre that teaches attendees the business know-how to start their journey in making millions from becoming a professional trainer, only within three hours! The programme also taught the participants how to leverage on digital marketing and technology platforms to market your training business internationally.

In the following month, the Millionaire Business School organised another programme dubbed as the Certified Professional Trainer (CPT) on 6 November 2017 at Vistana Hotel. The programme featured an intensive, comprehensive and hands on workshop that provided knowledge, skills and abilities for an individual to become a dynamic all-round trainer and facilitator. Led by three renowned International Master Trainers, the programme was certified by Western Kentucky University, a state university from USA. The programme saw participants from different backgrounds comprising trainers, consultants, head of departments, learning facilitators, human resource personnel, academics as well as training and development personnel of human capital specialists.

To register a seat to the Financial Education Convention 2018, visit financialeducationconvention.com and reserve your spot at to this event of golden opportunities! MSME

